PART A

Read the text and answer the questions. Circle the correct option: a, b, or c. An example has been done for you.

Dear Lena,

Greetings from England! I'm here for a summer language course. I've started an English language course at a school in York, an amazing city in the north of England. I got here on Sunday. I had to fly to Manchester, as there is no airport in York. I then had to get a train to York. It took me over six hours to get here: the flight was just over two hours long, and the train journey took over an hour and a half. Plus of course the journey to the airport from my home town of Granada!

I was really tired and a bit nervous when I arrived in York, but that changed after my first class. My teacher and the other students are really friendly – I think I'm going to make some great friends here. I'm going to have classes every day between nine and half past one, and then afternoon classes as well on Tuesdays and Thursdays. On the other afternoons, we are going to have activities with other students, or trips, and Saturdays and Sundays are my days off.

I'm staying with a really nice family. Their house is only a short walk away from the school. I could take a bus or ask them to take me in the car, but I'd rather enjoy the walk. The weather is not bad – it is warm, and we haven't had any rain so far. Not as good as in Spain though!

Hope you are OK and not missing me too much!

Sara

Read the three texts. Answer the questions by writing the correct letter: A, B, or C.

An example has been done for you.

Text A

Pancakes

1 cup of flour
2 tsp sugar
1 cup of milk
1 egg

Put the flour, salt and sugar into a large bowl. In a different bowl, mix together the milk and egg. Combine all the ingredients, and mix them with a spoon until everything is smooth. Fry in a pan with a little bit of butter or oil over a medium heat.

Serve with fresh fruit, lemon and sugar, or jam.

Text B

Pancakes are my favourite food! In England, people usually have them for breakfast or for dessert, but for example in Poland you can have them as your main meal. The American pancakes are completely different – they are small and thick. I learnt how to make pancakes when I was 7 years old – my grandma showed me how to do it. It's really easy, and only takes about ten minutes. Oh, and one more thing – they cost very little to make!

Steve, UK

Text C

It is important to have a healthy breakfast at the start of your day. There are so many choices - choosing the right one can be difficult. Many people choose to have pancakes for breakfast, and they want to know if this is a good choice. Pancakes have a range of vitamins and minerals, but they are also quite high in fat and calories. In my opinion, you should have them once or twice a month, but remember to choose healthy toppings, for example fresh fruit or honey.
